

2018-2019 NJAPZA Slate of Officers

President-Meghan Hunscher, PP/AICP

Meghan has been a member of NJAPZA since 2010 and is currently completing her first term as President. She also has served as Recording Secretary and Newsletter Editor. Meghan holds a Masters Degree in Urban Studies from the University of Pennsylvania. She began her planning career at Pennoni, and after several years as the Planner for Montville Township, she assumed her current position as the Executive Director of the Morris County Economic Development Corporation. Meghan considers NJAPZA to be a great organization with wonderful volunteers and feels like it is an exciting time to be involved. Over the next two years she wants to work on raising the statewide visibility of NJAPZA, increasing quality continuing education opportunities for the membership, and implementing the Mentor Program.

Vice President-George Waterman III

George has been a member of NJAPZA for 10 years. He was appointed Membership Chair in 2014 and elected Vice President in 2015. While serving as VP, George has also chaired the Law and Legislative Committee and co-chaired NJAPZA's Technology/Social Media efforts. He entered the field of land use and zoning enforcement in 2005 when he became the Zoning Officer in Neptune Township, where he also is the Assistant Land Use Administrator and serves as an EMT volunteer. George holds two Associates degrees from Brookdale Community College, one in Math/Science, and another in Sociology/Psychology. He is happy to be a part of efforts to increase NJAPZA's impact statewide and make it a bigger, better organization.

Treasurer-David Kois, PP/AICP

David has been a member of NJAPZA since 2013 and has served on the By-Laws Committee for the past two years. He wants to get more involved because he feels it organization for people who want to be good at what they do. He sees the potential that NJAPZA has for providing meaningful support statewide to those who serve in municipal land-use offices. David holds a Bachelors Degree in Planning from Rutgers and a Bachelors in Sociology from Montclair and is currently a student in the MCRP Program at the Bloustein School. Six years ago he began his planning career in Hillsborough Township as an intern, then transitioned to a full-time position as their Zoning Officer/Assistant Planner and currently holds the title of Business Advocate/Assistant Zoning Officer.

Corresponding/Recording Secretary-Jo-Ann Ricks

Jo-Ann joined NJAPZA in 2016 when she began working for Branchburg Township as the Deputy Zoning Officer and Clerk to the Board for both the planning board and zoning board of adjustment. She has served on the Education Committee for the past year and is ready to get more involved. Jo-Ann holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminal Justice from Kean University as well as a Paralegal Certificate from Raritan Valley Community College.
