

FROM THE CENTER FOR GOVERNMENT SERVICES:

The Nitty Gritty of Land Use Administration

If you are a planning or zoning board of adjustment secretary, a zoning officer, an elected official, or just want to know more about the nitty gritty details of planning and zoning for your community, you need Land Use Administration for New Jersey Municipalities (2007). This 138-page manual, developed by the Center for Government Services and the New Jersey Association of Planning and Zoning Administrators, covers the processing of development applications, necessary financial practices for land use offices, conduct of public meetings, and how to follow up on planning and zoning board of adjustment actions, among other topics. Supplementing its seven chapters are extensive appendices containing selected state laws, state guidance documents, and model forms and checklists that municipalities can adapt.

Land Use Administration for New Jersey Municipalities

Single copies of Land Use Administration for New Jersey Municipalities are available from the Center for Government Services (CGS) for $25 (including S & H). For orders of seven copies or more, the discounted price is $20 each. Purchase this manual with CGS's top-selling Planning and Zoning in New Jersey: A Manual for Planning and Zoning Boards (regularly $25) and save $10 off the total cost—$40 for both publications. To order, complete the form below and mail to Mary Jean Lush, Publications Office, Center for Government Services, Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy, Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, 33 Livingston Avenue, Suite 200, New Brunswick, NJ 08901-1979.
